

Core Design Principles

The DAG Army Reward System operates on clearly defined principles for all participants.

Transparency in Rules

All reward criteria are clearly defined and accessible.

Equal Starting Access

Every participant enters at the same foundational point.

Contribution-Based Earning

Rewards are earned through measurable actions, not promises.

One Individual, One Account

Ensures fairness and prevents system abuse.

Long-Term Sustainability

Focuses on enduring growth over short-term gains.
